Devon Community Together's report on the Community Consultation Day is now available to review at the "Documentation" link above. This, together with other evidence, will help to guide policies when the draft Neighbourhood Plan is prepared over the coming months. There is a lot of work required and only a small group of volunteers to do it, so please bear with us during this time. If you are interested in helping, or have any questions, then please use the "Contact Us" link above, or come to one of the Neighbourhood Plan Group meetings held at 7.30 p.m. in the Burrow on the last Thursday of every month.
